COURSE GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

This course is designed to introduce the student of education to the foundations, principles, and theories of curriculum development. As a result students should be able to:

- Reflect upon and discuss interpretations and understandings of assigned readings from their individual perspectives while pondering the viewpoints of others.
- Consider different definitions of curriculum.
- Analyze and value the complexities of curriculum development within historical, cultural, philosophical, economic, social, political, educational, and personal contexts.
- Apply theory and knowledge to solve school-related problems.
- Compare the characteristics of various curriculum models.
- Examine current curriculum-related issues and trends through the lens of multiculturalism, constructivism, hidden curriculum, and education reform.
- Identify important issues and make judicious decisions.
- Engage in continued personal research, reading, and study of curriculum and instruction.
- Use assessment software to collect and analyze data on student learning
- Produce assessment reports on student performance

Grading Guidelines and Rationale for Self- and Peer-Assessments

This course may be different from what you are accustomed. One of its strengths (and challenges) is that you will be required to view and rate some of the assignments, using instructor-created rubrics. Your ratings will be anonymous. However, you should post replies to your classmates' posts providing more information such as missing elements, incorrect grammar, or other issues. In addition, you should comment on what they did very well. The interactive and cooperative discussion forums should strengthen and promote class community, while also providing you with a way to self-assess your progress.

Peer-assessment is not meant to replace instructor grading, but rather to enhance it. Your instructor will review peer feedback/grades and then make the final determination for your score. Detailed feedback will be included as needed.

In order to facilitate this process, you will be divided into small groups of five to eight for this class. This will inhibit you from being overwhelmed with grading classmates' work, but will provide enough work to view and compare to your own.

Assignments
Assignment Due Dates: Unless otherwise noted, most assignments are due on Sundays at 11:55 PM, Eastern Standard Time. Please contact your me directly if you questions about assignment due dates or requirements.

Assignment Submission: All assignments should be submitted on the assigned due dates. Assignments will be submitted in various formats. Each assignment is described in detail, along with a rubric or details in D2L.

Schedule of Course Activities
Course calendar of activities, rubric, syllabus, and related course material are posted in Desire2 Learn (D2L) course management System.

Absence/withdrawal Policy
You are encouraged and expected to attend all classes. Roll will be taken at the beginning of each class. Missed classes count as absences even if you were not yet registered for this class. YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL MATERIAL COVERED, EVEN IF YOU ARE ABSENT. You will receive a grade of zero (0) for class participation and journaling on the days you are absent. These points cannot be made up. Please do not contact the School of Teacher Education to report an absence prior to class or to leave a message for me there. Any messages for me should either be emailed to me or left on phone number listed on this syllabus. There are no excused/unexcused absences, the grading policy allows for “infrequent” absences without significant penalty.

If a student does not attend at least one class during the first two weeks, they may be automatically dropped from the class. I am unable to withdraw you during the semester. If you need to do this before the midpoint of the semester, it is up to you to take care of this with the registrar’s office.

Tardy Arrival/Early Departure Policy
You are expected to arrive on time for each class and to remain until class is dismissed. Late arrivals (and early departures) disrupt the class and distract me.

Course Amendments
The instructor reserves the right to amend any aspects of the course outline as deemed necessary and useful to the goals of the course as well as the students’ progress and success.

Savannah State University Policies

a. Academic Honesty Policy:
Cheating is against school policy. Cheating includes any attempt to defraud, deceive, or mislead the instructor in arriving at an honest grade assessment, and may include copying answers from other students or using unauthorized notes during tests. Plagiarism is a particular form of cheating that involves presenting as one’s own the ideas or work of another, and may include using other people's ideas without proper attribution and submitting another person's work as one's own.

Violations of the cheating policy will result in a grade of '0' for the assignment in question, and may result in a failing grade for the course at the instructor's discretion. See the Student Conduct Code in the Student Handbook for details and for a review of the appeals procedure. Additional information related to Academic Honesty as it applies to courses taken in the School of Teacher Education may be found on the website at http://www.savannahstate.edu/student-affairs/docs/SSU_Student_Handbook.pdf

b. Americans with Disabilities Act Statement
If you are a student who is disabled as defined under the Americans with Disabilities Act and require assistance or support services, please seek assistance through the Center for Disability Services. A CDS Counselor will coordinate those services. It is the student’s responsibility to notify the instructor and to obtain an accommodation letter so that accommodations can be made for the class.

c. Statement of Non-Discrimination
Savannah State University supports the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Executive Order #11246, Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Americans with Disabilities Act. No person shall, on the basis of age, race, religion, color, gender, national origin or disability, be excluded from participation in, or be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity of the college.

Any individual with a grievance related to the enforcement of any of the above provisions should contact the Assistant Director of Human Resources, Ombudsperson.

d. Affirmative Action Statement
Savannah State University is an equal opportunity employer which assures that no person shall, on the grounds of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability, be excluded from employment or participation in, be denied the benefits of, or otherwise be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity the institution conducts.
Savannah State University complies with all state and federal affirmative action guidelines and criteria in its employment and hiring procedures and practices.

e. Equal Opportunity Statement
Savannah State University is an equal employment opportunity institution. The institution’s policy is that all recruiting, hiring, and promotion in all categories will be accomplished without regard to race, creed, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, handicap, or age. All personnel policies and employees benefits will be administered in a nondiscriminatory manner. As a part of this policy, an equal employment opportunity/affirmative action office is maintained on campus.
