

MASTER OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

URBAN MANAGEMENT

Gain practical knowledge in solving today's critical urban challenges. The curriculum leverages the expertise of SSU's faculty, the vibrant historic urban location of the University, and the social, demographic, and economic trends that are attracting greater numbers of practitioners and new-career professionals interested in developing innovative ideas and technical skills to make a life-changing impact in modern urban environments.

*Besides
Making Cities Work,
Urban Management can do
a lot more...*

12 Graduate Courses

36 Credits

Program Core Courses [21 Credits]
Track Required Courses [12 Credits]
Suggested Electives [3 Credits]

4 Semesters

You Will:

- Benefit from career guidance and network opportunities from leading practitioners in government and industry.
- Learn new models of urban governance, planning and innovation, that represent diverse communities grappling with questions of inclusion, social equity, and environmental justice.
- Develop expertise that generate smart policies and sustainable solutions to improve resilience of urban communities.

Career Pathways	*Growth	*Median Salary
City Management & Governance	6.0%	$91,869
Design & Sustainability	5.5%	$137,720
General Administration	10.0%	$100,780
Transportation & Logistics	6.0%	$94,560
Environment and Sustainability	6.0%	$117,892
Security & Emergency Management	6.0%	$74,590
Revenue & Taxation	10.0%	$57,010
Policy & Regulatory Affairs	8.0%	$110,000
Social & Community Service	10.0%	$64,100
Urban & Regional Planning	11.0%	$74,350

Seriously Impressive

More Information:

To learn more about this program, how to apply, and application deadlines, please visit:

<https://www.savannahstate.edu/graduate/>

